

Job Title: Choir Accompanist (Part-Time)
Church: First Reformed Church of Holland, Michigan
Hours: Approximately 8-10 hours per week

Position Summary

First Reformed Church of Holland is seeking a skilled and collaborative Choir Accompanist to support the music ministry of the congregation. Rooted in the Reformed Church in America tradition, our worship life values theological depth, musical excellence, and meaningful congregational participation. The accompanist will work closely with the Choir Director to provide high-quality accompaniment for rehearsals and worship, primarily on organ and piano.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide accompaniment for weekly choir rehearsals (Wednesday evenings)
 - Accompany the choir during Sunday worship services and special services as scheduled (e.g., Christmas, Holy Week)
 - Collaborate regularly with the Choir Director to prepare music selections and coordinate rehearsals
 - Engage in personal practice to ensure musical readiness and excellence
 - Support the broader worship ministry as needed, including occasional accompaniment for congregational singing or additional ensembles

Qualifications

- Proficiency in both organ and piano (organ strongly preferred)
 - Ability to read music fluently and accompany choral literature across a variety of traditional sacred styles
 - Experience working with church choirs or similar ensembles
 - Strong collaborative and communication skills
 - Familiarity with or appreciation for Reformed worship traditions

Expectations

- Demonstrate reliability, punctuality, and preparedness
- Maintain a spirit of humility, flexibility, and teamwork
- Support the mission and ministry of First Reformed Church of Holland through music

Time Commitment

- Weekly Wednesday evening rehearsal
- Sunday morning worship service participation (as scheduled)
- Additional time for coordination and personal practice (totaling approximately 10 hours per week)

Compensation

- Compensation is commensurate with experience and qualifications

Reporting Relationship

- Reports to the Lead Pastor
- Works in close collaboration with the Choir Director and worship staff

To Apply

Please submit a resume and, if available, recordings or references demonstrating musical ability and church accompaniment experience.
